DOBSON POINTS OUT MISTAKES

Discusses Blunders Made Last Saturday, and Sends Eleven Through Formation Drill—Yellow Jackets Posted on Richmond's Signals.

The shock of the defeat received last Saturday from the Yellow Jackets, has been a great lesson to the Spiders, but the sting is still present in the hearts of every man on the Spider football team, and it will stay there until it is wiped out by a victory over Hampden-Sidney when Richmond College meets her again on the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

Just at present the all-absorbing interest of the Spiders is to prepare for the game here at Broad Street Park Saturday with the Hampden-Sidney Tigers.

It will be remembered that in the first score of 29 to 9, later upon protest, the executive committee of the college decided that the game was ineligible to play. And following this decision the Spiders' victory was taken away from them by the committee and awarded to Hampden-Sidney.

Saturday the Spiders will be without the services of K. King, and they are all anxious to demonstrate to everybody's satisfaction that they can beat Hampden-Sidney just as they are. Needless to say, the Hampden-Sidney Tigers are bent on achieving a victory over the Spiders for exactly opposite reasons.

The Hampden-Sidney team now stands in the league with a percentage of 1.00, having three victories and no defeats, while the Spiders have a standing of only .333, having but one victory against two defeats to her credit. It is possible that an unusual interest to the game here and speculation is due to the result.

It is useless to try and convince any Spider that their team played its usual game Saturday. Everyone asserts that the team can do better than it did, and what is more, that the remaining games on the schedule will show the truth in this claim.

The Spiders have four games yet to play, all of which are to be staged at Broad Street Park. They are not out of the running for the championship, but instead are tied with both Randolph-Macon and William and Mary for second place. It is possible that the Spiders may yet win the championship.

Coach Dobson had the squad at work yesterday afternoon in a variety of long and short drills, discussing the past game and the games to be played in the future.

The afternoon was spent with signal and formation drill. Coach Dobson knows what sort of a game the Spiders will play on Saturday, and he is going to leave no stone unturned to put the team in the best possible position to win.

The Spiders are looking forward to a week of the hardest kind of work, but what a man is anxious for it, knowing what a hard game they are up against.

An interesting question that is being asked all over the campus is this: Who was the man who secured all the Spider football signals and the Yellow Jacket signals in every one of the Spider plays and in every one of the Yellow Jacket plays?

It is certain that the Yellow Jackets obtained the signals some way because they called the plays correctly after the game had ended.

A player on the Yellow Jackets, who had been admitted Saturday night to the game, had secured the valuable information.

It is expected that the Yellow Jackets will be able to get the signals in the future.

The Chester Aggies to play John Marshall Squad.

Game at Broad Street Park To-Day Promises to Be Full of Action—Several Players on Hospital List.

A battle royal is promised this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Broad Street Park when the Chester Aggies will meet the John Marshall Squad in the first football game of the season.

The two schools have been rivals for years, and a large crowd of their followers will likely be on hand to cheer their teams.

The Marshallites will be slightly outwitted by their opponents, who have an especially strong team this year.

The Chester backfield is greatly strengthened by several stars of Maryland, and will likely be on hand to cheer their teams.

CORNELL SHAPING FOR GAME

Several Changes Likely in Harvard's Squad—Army Starts Hard Work To-Day—Houghton Not Satisfied. Penn Meets Michigan Saturday.

ANNAPOLIS, November 2.—Talks by Coach Howard and Vaughan on weaknesses indicated in the game against the North Carolina Aggies on Saturday were among the main incidents of the practice at the naval academy this afternoon.

The whole afternoon was used, but the scrimmage was short and much attention was given to kicking, handling the ball and formations. Blood-spit continues to practice punting under the direction of Eustace Dalton, and some of his kicks this afternoon covered sixty yards.

Cornell Scouts Make Report. ITHACA, N. Y., November 2.—With the return of the Cornell scouts from the Harvard-Michigan game, the Cornell football squad to-day began preparations for the first big game of the season, that with the Wolverines at Ann Arbor on November 14.

Coach Shurpe excused the major portion of the varsity squad from practice, though a number of the ends and linemen were out on the field. The entire squad reported for blackboard talk and discussion of new plays.

Shurpe, the best ground gainer on the squad, when to the University in the morning on Sunday to get a rest. He has been overworked for the past two weeks and is a bit run down.

The coaches expect, however, that he will be back later in the week. Barrett and Hill are also expected to report by Wednesday. The condition of Captain O'Brien is not satisfactory. If he does not improve, Lantz will probably be played at right end.

Hinkley Makes Changes. NEW HAVEN, CONN., November 2.—Several changes were made by Coach Hinkley this afternoon, but it was stated that none of them had been decided upon as permanent and that they might have no significance.

At the game, Hinkley kept the first eleven, and Alsworth, who did not report, and Fred Stillman did not report, and who has been overworked for the scrum, was at right end.

Harvard's work in uniform, but was in a bad way, and was not in the best of health. He was in the hospital for a week, and is now in the hospital.

Light Work for Army. WEST POINT, N. Y., November 2.—Coming through the Villa Nova contest in a splendid physical condition, the Army began preparations to-day for the big game here Saturday with Notre Dame. The team will play in a variety of long and short drills, discussing the past game and the games to be played in the future.
